Communications Manager

1. Background

The Grangegorman Development Agency (GDA) is a statutory agency established in 2006 by the Irish Government under the Grangegorman Development Agency Act 2005 to undertake one of the largest regeneration and urban design projects within the city core for many decades. The GDA's mission is to transform Grangegorman into a vibrant community that encompasses a world class, integrated and inclusive education, health, and community campus. The GDA is now seeking to apply its accumulated knowledge and experience to other aligned national initiatives. To support this, the GDA is developing a new Special Projects function and is now looking to appoint a Communications Manager as a key staff member of the function.

The successful candidate will contribute to a dynamic and supportive environment and will be a key member of a specific-purpose team to develop and subsequently manage new projects. The first initiative the individual will be responsible for is the administrative management of GDA's role in the Build Digital project, a leading innovation action within the overall Project Ireland 2040 strategy, that aims to ensure world class digital practices, which already exist in certain elements in the construction sector, are adopted throughout the industry and supply chain in order to increase competitiveness, sustainability and innovation for all actors in the construction sector.

2. The Grangegorman Development Agency

In 2002 a government decision was reached to redevelop the St. Brendan's Hospital site, Grangegorman.

This was followed in 2005 with the Grangegorman Development Agency Act - (GDA Act) which made provision for the development of the Grangegorman site as an Open Urban Quarter including education, health and community facilities. The Agency was subsequently established in 2006.

2.1. Grangegorman Development Agency Mission – Vision – Values

Vision

Values

Collaboration, Delivery Focus, Design Quality, Integrity, Sustainability

2.2. Objectives

The overall objective of the GDA can be summarised as being the social and urban renewal of the 30 hectares of the former St. Brendan's Hospital site in Grangegorman and its surrounding areas, driven by the relocation of TU Dublin and the provision of modern primary and residential healthcare facilities. Grangegorman will be a new piece of Dublin City with a vibrant sustainable community based largely around new, world-class third level educational facilities and other community focused services.

2.3. Development

In numbers, the Project will ultimately deliver around 400,000 sq. of floor space, of which about 60,000 sq. will relate to the delivery of healthcare services; 280,000 sq. will relate to education; and a further 60,000 sq. will be occupied by a mixed-use development focused on science and technology. It is expected that around 30,000 people will use the Grangegorman Site once it is fully completed. The public realm is designed to link strongly into the neighbouring areas, creating new connections into and across the wider city.

Normally the number of applications received for a position exceeds that required to fill existing and future vacancies to the position. While a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, the GDA may decide that a number only will be called to interview. In this respect, the GDA provide for the employment of a short-listing process to select a group for interview who, based on an examination of the application forms, appear to be the most suitable for the position. An expert board will examine the application forms against pre-determined criteria based on the requirements of the position. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable or incapable of undertaking the job, rather that there are some candidates who, based on their application, appear to be better qualified and/or have more relevant experience. It is therefore in your own interest to provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications/ experience on the application form.

Elements of the selection process may be undertaken by other parties. In such circumstances, it will be necessary for your information to be shared between GDA and these parties in order for your application to be processed.

7.6. Appointments from panels

At the end of the selection process, a panel(s) of qualified candidates is formed from which vacancies may be filled. This panel may remain in place for up to two years. A panel is a list of qualified candidates ranked in order of merit from the final stage of the selection process. Should a vacancy arise, and their place reached, candidates undergo the final stage of the selection process. Prior to recommending any candidate for appointment to this position, the GDA will make all such enquiries that are deemed necessary e.g., employer references, to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the selection process have been fully completed, a final determination cannot be made, nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made. Qualification and placement on a panel is not a guarantee of appointment to a position. Please note that once an offer of appointment has been accepted a candidate may no longer remain on the panel.

7.7. Security Clearance

You may be required to complete and return a Garda eVetting form should you come under consideration for appointment. This form will be forwarded to A Garda Síochána for security checks on all Irish and Northern Irish addresses at which you resided. However, should your application for the competition be unsuccessful, this form will be destroyed by GDA. If you subsequently come under consideration for another position, you may therefore be required to complete a further Garda eVetting Form. Special Security Clearance is a requirement for appointments to certain offices or departments.

If you have resided/studied in countries outside of the Republic of Ireland for a period of 6 months or more, you will need to provide a separate Police Clearance Certificate for each country you have resided in. Clearance must be dated after the date you left the country.

It is YOUR responsibility to seek security clearances in a timely fashion as they can take some time. You cannot be appointed without this information being provided and being in order.

 - Are fully competent and available to undertake, and fully capable of undertaking, the duties attached to the position.

7.9. Non-Refund of Expenses

Any expenses incurred by candidates whilst undertaking or attending any elements of the selection process will not be refunded.

7.10. Other important information

The admission of a person to a campaign, or invitation to attend an interview, is not to be taken as implying that the GDA are satisfied that such person fulfils the requirements of the competition or is not disqualified by law from holding the position and does not carry a guarantee that your application will receive further consideration. It is important, therefore, for you to note that the onus is on you to ensure that you meet the eligibility requirements for the competition before attending for interview. If you do not meet these essential entry requirements but nevertheless attend for interview you will be putting yourself to unnecessary expense.

Prior to recommending any candidate for appointment to this position the GDA will make all such enquiries that are deemed necessary to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the recruitment process have been fully completed a final determination cannot be made nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made.

7.11. Candidates' Obligations

Candidates should note that canvassing will disqualify and will result in their exclusion from the process.

Candidates must not:

- knowingly or recklessly provide false information;
- canvass any person with or without inducements;
- interfere with or compromise the process in any way;
- personate a candidate at any stage of the process.

Any person who contravenes the above provisions or who assists another person in contravening the above provisions is guilty of an offence. A person who is found guilty of an offence is liable to a fine/or imprisonment.

In addition, where a person found guilty of an offence was or is a candidate at a recruitment process, then: where they have not been appointed to a post, they will be disqualified as a candidate; and where they have been appointed subsequently to the recruitment process in question, they shall forfeit that appointment.

7.12. Deeming of candidature to be withdrawn

Candidates who do not attend for interview or other test when and where required by the GDA, or who do not, when requested, furnish such evidence as the GDA require in regard to any matter relevant to their candidature, will have no further claim to consideration.

7.13. Declining an offer of appointment

Should the person recommended for appointment decline, or having accepted it, relinquish it or if an additional vacancy arises the GDA may, at its discretion, select and recommend another person for appointment on the results of this selection process.

7.14. Confidentiality of Information and Materials

It is important to remember that this is a competitive process for a role where integrity is paramount. Sharing information on the selection process e.g., through social media or any other means, may result in you being disqualified from the competition. Please note that all assessment and test materials are subject to copyright and all rights are reserved. No part of the test material (including passages of information, questions, or answer options), associated materials and/or interview related information may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means including electronic, mechanical, photocopying, photographing, recording, written or otherwise, at any stage. To do so is an offence and may result in you being excluded from the selection process.
