The selection may include:

- shortlisting of candidates based on the information contained in their application;
- a competitive preliminary interview;
- presentation or other exercises;
- a final competitive interview;
- Any other tests or exercises that may be deemed appropriate.

8.2. Shortlisting

Normally the number of applications received for a position exceeds that required to fill existing and future vacancies to the position. While a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, the GDA may decide that a number only will be called to interview. In this respect, the GDA provide for the employment of a short-listing process to select a group for interview who, based on an examination of the application forms, appear to be the most suitable for the position. An expert board will examine the application forms against pre-determined criteria based on the requirements of the position. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable or incapable of undertaking the job, rather that there are some candidates who, based on their application, appear to be better qualified and/or have more relevant experience. It is therefore in your own interest to provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications/ experience on the application form.

Elements of the selection process may be undertaken by other parties. In such circumstances, it will be necessary for your information to be shared between GDA and these parties for your application to be processed.

8.3. Reasonable Accommodations

Candidates who would like to avail of reasonable accommodations are asked to email hr@ggda.ie in confidence to discuss provision of the required supports.

8.4. Confidentiality

Subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2014, the Data Protection Acts 2018 and any security clearance and/or enquiries, all aspects of the proceedings, to the extent that they are managed by the Agency or employing organisation, are treated in strict confidence, and are not disclosed to anyone outside those directly involved in the selection process.

8.5. Appointments from panels

At the end of the selection process, a panel(s) of qualified candidates is formed from which vacancies may be filled. This panel may remain in place for up to two years. A panel is a list of qualified candidates ranked in order of merit from the final stage of the selection process. Should a vacancy arise, and their place reached, candidates undergo the final stage of the selection process. Prior to recommending any candidate for appointment to this position, the GDA will make all such enquiries that are deemed necessary e.g., employer references, to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the selection process have been fully completed, a final determination cannot be made, nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made. Qualification and placement on a panel is not a guarantee of appointment to a position. Please note that once an offer of appointment has been accepted a candidate may no longer remain on the panel.

8.6. Security Clearance

You may be required to complete and return a Garda eVetting form should you come under consideration for appointment. This form will be forwarded to A Garda Síochána for security checks on all Irish and Northern Irish addresses at which you resided. However, should your application for the competition be unsuccessful, this form will be destroyed by GDA. If you subsequently come under consideration for another position, you may therefore be required to complete a further Garda eVetting Form. Special Security Clearance is a requirement for appointments to certain offices or departments.

If you have resided/studied in countries outside of the Republic of Ireland for a period of 6 months or more, you will need to provide a separate Police Clearance Certificate for each country you have resided in. Clearance must be dated after the date you left the country.

It is YOUR responsibility to seek security clearances in a timely fashion as they can take some time. You cannot be appointed without this information being provided and being in order.

8.7. Specific candidate criteria

In addition to fulfilling the eligibility criteria set out, candidates must:

- Have the knowledge and ability to discharge the duties of the post concerned;
- Be suitable on the grounds of health & character;
- Be suitable in all other relevant respects for appointment to the post concerned;
- If successful, they will not be appointed to the post unless they:
  - Agree to undertake the duties attached to the post and accept the conditions under which the duties are, or may be required to be performed; and
  - Are fully competent and available to undertake, and fully capable of undertaking, the duties attached to the position.

8.8. Non-Refund of Expenses

Any expenses incurred by candidates whilst undertaking or attending any elements of the selection process will not be refunded.

8.9. Other important information

The admission of a person to a campaign, or invitation to attend an interview, is not to be taken as implying that the GDA are satisfied that such person fulfils the requirements of the competition or is not disqualified by law from holding the position and does not carry a guarantee that your application will receive further consideration. It is important, therefore, for you to note that the onus is on you to ensure that you meet the eligibility requirements for the competition before attending for interview. If you do not meet these essential entry requirements but nevertheless attend for interview you will be putting yourself to unnecessary expense.

Prior to recommending any candidate for appointment to this position the GDA will make all such enquiries that are deemed necessary to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the recruitment process have been fully completed a final determination cannot be made nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made.

8.10. Candidates' Obligations

Candidates should note that canvassing will disqualify and will result in their exclusion from the process.

Candidates must not:

- knowingly or recklessly provide false information;
- canvass any person with or without inducements;
- interfere with or compromise the process in any way;
- personate a candidate at any stage of the process.

Any person who contravenes the above provisions or who assists another person in contravening the above provisions is guilty of an offence. A person who is found guilty of an offence is liable to a fine/or imprisonment.

In addition, where a person found guilty of an offence was or is a candidate at a recruitment process, then: where they have not been appointed to a post, they will be disqualified as a candidate; and where they have been appointed subsequently to the recruitment process in question, they shall forfeit that appointment.

8.11. Deeming of candidature to be withdrawn

Candidates who do not attend for interview or other test when and where required by the GDA, or who do not, when requested, furnish such evidence as the GDA require regarding any matter relevant to their candidature, will have no further claim to consideration.

8.12. Declining an offer of appointment

Should the person recommended for appointment decline, or having accepted it, relinquish it or if an additional vacancy arises the GDA may, at its discretion, select and recommend another person for appointment on the results of this selection process.

8.13. Confidentiality of Information and Materials

It is important to remember that this is a competitive process for a role where integrity is paramount.
