3 The Grangegorman Development Agency

In 2002 a government decision was reached to redevelop the St. Brendan's Hospital site, Grangegorman.

This was followed in 2005 with the Grangegorman Development Agency Act - (GDA Act) which made provision for the development of the Grangegorman site as an Open Urban Quarter including education, health, and community facilities. The Agency was subsequently established in 2006.

3.1 Grangegorman Development Agency Mission – Vision – Values

3.2 Objectives

The overall objective of the GDA can be summarised as being the social and urban renewal of the 30 hectares of the former St. Brendan's Hospital site in Grangegorman and its surrounding areas, driven by the relocation of TU Dublin and the provision of modern primary and residential healthcare facilities. Grangegorman will be a new piece of Dublin City with a vibrant sustainable community based largely around new, world-class third level educational facilities and other community focused services.

3.3 Development

In numbers, the Project will ultimately deliver around 400,000 sq. m. of floor space, of which about 60,000 sq. m. will relate to the delivery of healthcare services; 280,000 sq. m. will relate to education; and a further 60,000 sq. m. will be occupied by a mixed-use development focused on science and technology. The Project also includes the provision of around 15 hectares of connecting streets, public spaces, and parkland with football pitches, playgrounds, and jogging paths. The public realm is designed to link strongly into the neighbouring areas, creating new connections into and across the wider city.

Should a vacancy arise, and their place reached, candidates undergo the final stage of the selection process. Prior to recommending any candidate for appointment to this position, the GDA will make all such enquiries that are deemed necessary e.g., employer references, to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the selection process have been fully completed, a final determination cannot be made, nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made. Qualification and placement on a panel is not a guarantee of appointment to a position. Please note that once an offer of appointment has been accepted a candidate may no longer remain on the panel.

8.7 Security Clearance

You may be required to complete and return a Garda eVetting form should you come under consideration for appointment. This form will be forwarded to A Garda Síochána for security checks on all Irish and Northern Irish addresses at which you resided. However, should your application for the competition be unsuccessful, this form will be destroyed by GDA. If you subsequently come under consideration for another position, you may therefore be required to complete a further Garda eVetting Form. Special Security Clearance is a requirement for appointments to certain offices or departments.

If you have resided/studied in countries outside of the Republic of Ireland for a period of 6 months or more, you will need to provide a separate Police Clearance Certificate for each country you have resided in. Clearance must be dated after the date you left the country. It is YOUR responsibility to seek security clearances in a timely fashion as they can take some time. You cannot be appointed without this information being provided and being in order.

8.8 Specific candidate criteria

In addition to fulfilling the eligibility criteria set out, candidates must:

- Have the knowledge and ability to discharge the duties of the post concerned;
- Be suitable on the grounds of health & character;
- Be suitable in all other relevant respects for appointment to the post concerned;
- If successful, they will not be appointed to the post unless they:
 - Agree to undertake the duties attached to the post and accept the conditions under which the duties are, or may be required to be performed; and
 - Are fully competent and available to undertake, and fully capable of undertaking, the duties attached to the position.

8.9 Non-Refund of Expenses

Any expenses incurred by candidates whilst undertaking or attending any elements of the selection process will not be refunded.

8.10 Other important information

The admission of a person to a campaign, or invitation to attend an interview, is not to be taken as implying that the GDA are satisfied that such person fulfils the requirements of the competition or is not disqualified by law from holding the position and does not carry a guarantee that your application will receive further consideration. It is important, therefore, for you to note that the onus is on you to ensure that you meet the eligibility requirements for the competition before attending for interview. If you do not meet these essential entry requirements but nevertheless attend for interview you will be putting yourself to unnecessary expense.

Prior to recommending any candidate for appointment to this position the GDA will make all such enquiries that are deemed necessary to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the recruitment process have been fully completed a final determination cannot be made nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made.

8.11 Candidates' Obligations

Candidates should note that canvassing will disqualify and will result in their exclusion from the process.

Candidates must not:

- knowingly or recklessly provide false information;
- canvass any person with or without inducements;
- interfere with or compromise the process in any way;
- personate a candidate at any stage of the process.

Any person who contravenes the above provisions or who assists another person in contravening the above provisions is guilty of an offence. A person who is found guilty of an offence is liable to a fine/or imprisonment.

In addition, where a person found guilty of an offence was or is a candidate at a recruitment process, then: where they have not been appointed to a post, they will be disqualified as a candidate; and where they have been appointed subsequently to the recruitment process in question, they shall forfeit that appointment.

8.12 Deeming of candidature to be withdrawn

Candidates who do not attend for interview or other tests when and where required by the GDA, or who do not, when requested, furnish such evidence as the GDA require regarding any matter relevant to their candidature, will have no further claim to consideration.

8.13 Declining an offer of appointment

Should the person recommended for appointment decline, or having accepted it, relinquish it or if an additional vacancy arises the GDA may, at its discretion, select and recommend another person for appointment on the results of this selection process.

8.14 Confidentiality of Information and Materials

It is important to remember that this is a competitive process for a role where integrity is paramount. Sharing information on the selection process e.g., through social media or any other means, may result in you being disqualified from the competition. Please note that all assessment and test materials are subject to copyright and all rights are reserved. No part of the test material (including passages of information, questions, or answer options), associated materials and/or interview related information may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means including electronic, mechanical, photocopying, photographing, recording, written or otherwise, at any stage. To do so is an offence and may result in you being excluded from the selection process. Any person who contravenes this provision, or who assists another person(s) in contravening this provision, is liable to prosecution and/or civil suit for loss of copyright and intellectual property.

8.15 Use of Recording Equipment

GDA does not allow the unsanctioned use of any type of recording equipment on its premises. This applies to any form of sound recording and any type of still picture or video recording, whether including sound recording or not, and covers any type of device used for these purposes. Any person wishing to use such equipment for any of these purposes must seek written permission in advance. This policy is in place to protect the privacy of staff and customers and the integrity of our assessment material and assessment processes. Unsanctioned use of recording equipment by any person is a breach and will result in the candidate being disqualified from the competition.

8.16 Quality Customer Service

We aim to provide an excellent quality service to all our customers. If, for whatever reason, you are unhappy with any aspect of the service you receive from us, we urge you to bring this to the attention of the unit or staff member concerned. This is important as it ensures that we are aware of the problem and can take the appropriate steps to resolve it. Feedback will be provided on written request.

8.17 General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) came into force on the 25th of May 2018, replacing the existing data protection framework under the EU Data Protection Directive. When you register with the GDA or submit an application for a competition, we create a computer record in your name. Information submitted with a job application is used in processing your application. Where the services of a third party are used in processing your application, it may be required to provide them with information, however all necessary precautions will be taken to ensure the security of your data. If you are successful in the recruitment and selection competition, your application may be made available to sections of the organisation to which you have been assigned.

Personal data sought for the purpose of recruitment will include your name, your contact details including email address and mobile phone number, particulars of education, details regarding your record of employment and confirmation if you require an employment permit / visa / or work authorisation.

If, following the competition, you are placed on a panel and offered a position, the information provided in your application form will form part of your Personnel File.

Your application will be retained for the duration of the panel for this position is formed. Applications that are unsuccessful at interview stage will be retained for one year. Applications that are not progressed to interview stage will be destroyed post competition.
